Thursday, March 11. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated March 13.

Vienna, February 29.

General Heister is to command the Imperial Forces in Hungary, the ensuing Campaign. The Emperour having resolv'd to raise two new Regiments of Hussars in that Kingdom, has appointed Count Nadasti and Count Esterhazy of Galanta to command them. Count Maximilian Staremberg, having with him a good Sum of Money, going from Presbourg to Tirnau with a Guard of 14 Hussars, was met by the the Way by 30 Horse of the Malecontents, who surrounded and took him Prisoner. Endeavours are us'd to induce the Malecontents to agree to a Suspension of Arms, before the Opening of the Diet at Presbourg; but there is little appearance of Success, because Prince Ragorski having receiv'd considerable Remittances of Money from France, is thereby enabled to maintain his present Creatures and engage new. The Express who was sent with the Emperour's Letters, inviting the unfaithful Hungarians (as he styles them) to send Deputies to the foresaid Diet, is return'd from Comorra; and reports, that he could not get Passports to go further, and therefore had given the said Letters to two Hungarian Gentlemen that are well acquainted with Prince Ragorski and Count Berezeni, to whom they promis'd to deliver them. The Emperour has signified to the foreign Ministers, that they may spare themselves the Trouble of following him when he goes to Presbourg; as well because the Confluence of People there will be so great, that they cannot well be accommodated with Lodging, as because he intends to make but a short Stay there. The Court are uneasy at the Proceedings of King Augustus, who complains, that he cannot be suffer'd to quarter his Troops in the Empire; and that if he sends them to quarter in Principalities or Counties that are Fees of the Electorate of Saxony, 'tis look'd upon as a Violation of their Rights; notwithstanding the Diet of the Empire had long given him Hope that they would take those Troops into their Service: That he is now disappointed in his Expectation, by the Resolution of the said Diet to take but 3000 of his Horse into their Pay; whereas he is determin'd not to part with 8 or 6000 at least, and demands to be paid in ready Money the Charge he has been at to subsist them while the Diet kept him in Hope to take them off his Hands. The Emperour has ratified the Resolution of the Diet at Ratisbon, for supplying the Military-Chest, furnishing the Contingent of Men and Money, and taking into Service some Saxon Horse. And has acquainted the Elector of Hanover with his Thoughts touching the best Manner of making that Resolution effectual, desiring his Electoral Highness's Opinion thereon.

From the Amst. Cour. dated March 17. &c.

Vienna, March 3. The Emperour has given Leave for carrying to Presbourg Forrage and Provisions of all sorts, either from hence or elsewhere, without paying any Toll or Duty: And an Officer is sent thither, to lay Bridges over the 3 Canals of the Danube there. Yesterday Prince Esterhazy Palatine of Hungary went thither: The Prince of Salm will go thither shortly; and the Emperour will follow by the 9th or at farthest the 15th of this Month. A Body of 5000 Malecontents having forc'd the Lines near Oedenburg, have Plunder'd several Villages, and carry'd off a great Booty. Recruits for the Emperour's Forces in Hungary and elsewhere, are daily sent from hence and other Places to their respective Regiments. Count Rabutin is discharg'd from all Military Services, on Account of his Indispositions and Infirmary of Body, and the Government of Transilvania is conferr'd on General Kriechbaum. Count Nicholas Palfi, Count Herberstein, and Count Schlick, are advanc'd to the Rank of Field-Marschals; and Count Tierheim will be made General of Artillery. King Charles is to be Marry'd by Proxy to the Princess of Wolfenbuttel, and that Marriage will be Solemniz'd by the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeyts the 20th Instant in the Chappel at Hitzingen; the 21st She will set out for Milan, and stay there or at Final till an English and Dutch Squadron come to carry her to Barcelona. The Count de Molar and the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeyts are to conduct her to Barcelona. Count Taun refusing to serve under Cardinal Grimani, who is made Viceroy of Naples in his stead; he is, with the Content of the Emperour and of the King of Spain, to go to Piemont, and serve under the Duke of Savoy. Prince Eugene of Savoy, who has a great Esteem for the Family of Visconti, has procur'd the honourable Post of General of Arms of the Kingdom of Naples for General Visconti. Field-Marshal Count Guido Staremberg sets out to Morrow for Catalonia. The Emperour having receiv'd a written Petition from the Jesuites, importing, that they having considerable Estates and Effects in Hungary, may be summon'd as States of that Kingdom to the Diet; consulted the Hungarian Chancery thereon, and upon their Advice, rejected the Petition as impertinent. 'Tis reported Prince Eugene of Savoy will speedily be going for Hanover and the Hague: 'Tis also talk'd, that those who have Offices in the Electorate of Bavaria, will be requir'd to advance Money by way of Loan to the Emperour, to be continu'd in their Employments.

From the Harl. and Amst. Cour. dated March 17. &c.

Vienna, March 3. Count Guido Staremberg set out this Morning Post for Italy, thence to proceed to Catalonia. The Marquis de Cortanza, Envoy extraordinary of the Duke of Savoy, sets out to Morrow on his Return to Turin. Yesterday the Count de Villa-Mayor, Ambassador of Portugal, had Audience of the Emperour and Empress, the Empress-Dowager, and the Arch-Duchesses. His Imperial Majesty's Departure for Presbourg, is fix'd to the 15th Instant. The Counts Wratislau, Sinzendorf, and Zeilern, his Ministers, will go thither before him: But 'tis doubtful whether the Prince of Salm goes thither at all. 'Tis now the Discourse, that when the Affair of the ninth Electorate is concluded in the Diet of the Empire, Cardinal Lamberg will come hither, to be made the Emperour's first Minister. The 1st of this Month arriv'd an Express from King Charles III, with Advice that the Troops from Italy were all arriv'd at Barcelona, except 350 Men, which were on board a Dutch Man of War and 2 Transports that were separated from the Fleet in the Voyage and not yet come in. His Catholick Majesty writes, that he hop'd his Bride was on her Way to him. The civil Officers of Bavaria will be requir'd to lend the Emperour 200000 Rixdollars.

Shields, March 6. This Day (the Embargo being taken off the Shipping that was in this Port,) sail'd about 150 Sail of Laden Colliers under Convoy of two Men of War, part for the Coast, the rest for London. There is about 30 still left behind, and 2 Men of War, viz. the Strumbelo and Newport.

Yarmouth, March 8. Here are now in our Road 15 Sail of Light Colliers waiting for Convoy. And this Evening came into this Road a laden Collier, the Master reports that he came away from Timmouth-Bar in Company with near 200 Sail under Convoy of the Folkestone and Feversham, and because they don't appear he is of Opinion they put into Humber last Night.

continues in the Downes. And this Morning came in her Majesty's Ships the Weymouth, Warwick, Valeur, and Glasgow.

London, March 11.

Yesterday arriv'd an Express from Sir George Byng, which left him with the Fleet between Calais and Dunkirk at 9 a Clock on Tuesday Morning. The Enemy were not then come out of Dunkirk; And Sir George having a fair Wind propos'd to be in a few Hours in such a Station as he desir'd, to dispute their Passage if they should attempt it.

'Tis confirm'd that the Best Squadron consisting of 6 Men of War and the like Numbe of Frigates and Privateers of from 18 to 30 Guns, are arriv'd in Dunkirk.
